Guidelines For Custom Artscreen Artwork

- A signed "Artist's Release Form" must accompany all custom art that is copyrighted, registered or signed before it can be legally reproduced for Artscreen. The form attached to this document is available at <http://www.vutec.com/licensed-artwork>
- There is an additional charge when using CUSTOM. There is also an additional charge if a client wants Vutec to edit their images in-house.
- Vutec will send a proof of the custom art after receiving the artist release form, high-res artwork file and color-matched print. Client must compare the proof with their original artwork. If the proof is acceptable, sign the release form (on page 3 of this document) and mail back to Vutec.

- Vutec will create the finished art after receiving the signed, returned proof.
- Vutec must receive a digital file that meets specifications and a color correct print of the original art.
